

Think-Cell

Installation Wizard

The first to do is send a "Service Request" through our Servicedesk system to our send you a license number.

After the installation is very simple, you have to leave all the options by default.

In the last screen you have to enter the license number sent you by the IT department.